

Daisen-Oki National Park

SOHEI course

● Daisenji temple main hall

● Amida-do hall

● Daisen National Park Center

It is said that Sohei course is a trail to the summit of Mt. Daisen which was used for ascetic practices by Buddhist monks of Daisenji temple.

Mysterious and sacred forest walk with a nature guide to feel summer in Mt. Daisen

Participants Wanted

©Kohji Shiiki

Fee
300yen
insurance fee

Date: 29th June, Saturday 10:00a.m. ~1:00p.m.

Apply us by 26th June, Wednesday

● The 1st Daisen-Oki National Park · International Park Supporters event ●

We are going to walk with a nature guide in a beech forest around Daisenji temple. You will meet seasonal flowers and plants, listen to birds signing and enjoy scents and breeze around there. Please come to feel charms of mysterious and sacred nature of Mt. Daisen.

- ❖ Eligible applicant: Non-Japanese who lives in San-in region and their family.
- ❖ Please wear comfortable clothes and shoes for walking.

① Meet at 2nd floor entrance of Daisen National Park Center at 9:45a.m. or Limited free transfer service is available from JR Yonago station Dandan Hiroba at 9a.m.

② Walking course: as a map above

※ The menu of the event will be changed if the weather is stormy.

③ Dismiss at JR Yonago Dandan Hiroba at 1p.m.

Apply Us Ministry of the Environment Daisen-Oki National Park Office
TEL : 0859-34-9331 FAX : 0859-34-9330

E-mail : NCO-YONAGO@env.go.jp

