

Setonaikai National Park

Mt. Washuzan (Kurashiki City)

Setonaikai National Park

Ojigatake Hill (Kurashiki City/Tamano City)

Setonaikai National Park

Shibukawa Beach (Tamano City)

Daisen Oki National Park

Hiruzen (Maniwa City)

岡山の 国立公園

National Park in Okayama

Setonaikai National Park

Shiraishi Island (Kasaoka City)

Setonaikai National Park

Ushimado-Jinja Shrine (Setouchi City)

Setonaikai National Park

Kakuizjima Island (Bizen City)

Daisen Oki National Park

Mt. Kenashiyama (Shinjo Village)

Ministry of the Environment Chugoku-Shikoku Regional Environment Office

Photo by Okayama Prefectural Tourism Federation

Rules & Manners in National Parks with

Do not capture any living creatures

Rule

Enjoy observing living creatures, but do not touch.

Do not pick plants

Rule

Enjoy observing the beautiful flowers, but do not pick.

Do not paint graffiti

Rule

Do not paint graffiti on, or otherwise damage facilities or signboards.

Sources of fire may be used only in designated areas

Rule

Almost all fires are caused by humans. Take every precaution when using sources of fire since fires can cause irreparable damage.

Do not feed the wild animals

Manner

Do not feed any wild animals you may encounter.

Stay on the designated paths

Manner

You may lose your way or tread on rare plants if you leave the designated paths.

※Who is Momotaro? Momotaro (Peach Boy), who was born from a big peach, made a friends with a dog, a pheasant and a monkey by Kibidango (using millet mochi balls). And together they defeated the ogres on the Ogre Island, and brought the treasures home. It's a fairy tale of Okayama prefecture.